

Information on In(ter)dependence Week, 3rd-9th July: A Series of American Themed Fundraising Events

SATURDAY 3rd JULY, 12-5pm: A Summer Festival at The Perch, Binsey live music and fun for all ages, with Cajun swing band L'Angelus from 3pm Purchase a £5 Pass for discounts on food & drink and entry into a prize draw.
Discount= 25%. Other music: folk, indie, jazz and pop.
Facepainting, colouring books, balloon & bubbles also available.

SUNDAY 4th JULY: American Composers at the 11am Mass
With guest celebrant/preacher Fr Joel from the Brooklyn Oratory!

MONDAY 5th JULY, 8pm: Adventures in the New World
Adam Brakel & the International Baroque Players in an exclusive concert at the Oratory
Tickets £12 (£8 concessions). Available online at www.ticketlessmusic.com
In the church itself. The first half will explore the innovations of the rich Baroque era, when the relationship between Europe and the New World was in its infancy, with the second half taking us on a journey in that new world through Romantic and American organ music. The programme will include works by Corelli, Vivaldi, Liszt and Demessieux.
We are delighted to welcome Adam Brakel, an outstanding organist from Florida, and members of the dynamic International Baroque Players to the Oratory.
Refreshments (cash bar) will be available during the interval (20 mins) in the Parish Centre.

TUESDAY 6th JULY, 2-4pm: The Medieval & Reformation Eras: Oxford Town & Gown
Oxford History Tours by John Whitehead, with tea at 4pm.
Tickets £12 (£8 concessions) or £20 (£12) for both tours
Learn about Catholic Oxford from Dr John Whithead of Oriel College. The 1st of 2 tours.
Cream tea included in ticket price.

WEDNESDAY 7th JULY, 8pm: An American Remembers C.S. Lewis a talk by Walter Hooper, Lewis' last secretary, at the Oxford Oratory. Tickets £5
In the church itself. Refreshments available afterwards in the Parish Centre (cash bar).

THURSDAY 8th JULY, 2-4pm: From JH Newman to the Inklings: Oxford Culture
Oxford History Tours by John Whitehead, finishing with a tour & history of the Oxford Oratory, and tea at 4pm. Tickets £12 (£8 concessions) or £20 (£12) for both tours

Learn about Catholic Oxford from Dr John Whithead of Oriel College. The 2nd of 2 tours.

Cream tea included in ticket price.

FRIDAY 9th JULY - FINALE: Dinner at Harris Manchester College with after dinner speaker Fr Richard Duffield, Cong. Orat. £75, apply via order form.
Champagne Reception in the quad with harpist Cecila Sultana de Maria, from 6:30pm. Dinner at 7:15pm, with talk (on Newman and the Oratory) and mini auction after.

Carriages at 10:30pm, dress code Black Tie (ie. Tuxedo).

Tickets and passes for all events available in The Porter's Lodge of the Oratory.
You can also reserve tickets by emailing campaign@oxfordoratory.org.uk, or calling 01865 315800.